

Circulation nearly 1900.

BRIEF MENTION.

The town authorities are improving some of the hitherto neglected streets.

There was a light frost on last Saturday morning, but no damage was done by it.

Last Friday was the busiest day with our merchants since the opening of the spring trade.

Ten bales of cotton were sold at this place one day last week by a single farmer of this County.

Be sure to attend the "Welcome Meeting" in the Methodist Church this (Thursday) evening.

Mr. W. A. Chapman has just received a very large lot of ladies' and children's shoes, call and see them.

Mr. N. K. Sullivan, one of the jurymen excluded from the U. S. Court by the test oath, returned home on Saturday.

Mr. Thomas K. Kree, a revivalist of national reputation, will be in attendance upon the Y. M. C. A. Convention this week.

Abbeville has a literary club composed of the best citizens of the place, both old and young. Why can't Anderson afford as much?

The weather is at present exceptionally fine, and from the dullness of trade about town we presume the farmers are making good use of it.

Williamston Division, Sons of Temperance have arranged for a basket picnic at Belton on Saturday, 3rd of May. It will doubtless be a pleasant occasion.

C. A. Reed, Agent, continues to do a large hat trade. He keeps a large and well assorted stock, and his prices are lower than any retail prices anywhere.

We are glad to see that Judge Reed is recovered sufficiently from his recent illness to be out again, and hope that he will speedily recover his usual health.

Forty-one excursion tickets to Charleston were sold by the agent at this place on Monday. Thirty-eight of the excursionists went down on Monday, and the other three on Tuesday.

The Anderson Theatrical Company is preparing to give another entertainment about the middle of next month. A pleasant evening is in store for all those who may attend.

You can have your bill heads, letter heads, note heads, envelopes, etc., printed at this office in as nice style, and at as reasonable prices as at any office in the State. All we ask is a trial.

The session of the Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association will be found extremely interesting by our citizens, and it is earnestly desired that as many as can will attend.

Grand Master J. A. Snyder, of Charleston, will officiate at the laying of the cornerstone of the new Presbyterian Church on the 10th of May. Further particulars hereafter.

Dr. P. A. White will attend the session of the National Medical Convention, which convenes in Atlanta on the 6th prox. There will be seven or eight hundred doctors in attendance upon the meeting.

Nine of the sixty-six delegates to which the Baptists of this State are entitled in the Southern Baptist Convention, which meets in Atlanta on the 8th prox., have been appointed from the Saluda Association.

The unveiling of the Confederate Monument in Columbia will take place on the 13th of May, and will doubtless be a grand occasion. The Palmetto Riflemen, together with many others of our citizens, expect to be present.

Once in a life time is as often as any man should be required to serve on a jury, the business of which is to make arrangements for the entertainment of delegates to a State meeting of any character; and truly thankful are we that our term has been served.

John E. Peoples has just received a car load of stove, and has put together on the way, which he will sell on the cotton option plan. Having secured the services of a first-class mechanic, he is prepared to do roofing, gutting, &c., better and at lower rate than ever before.

A short time since we had the pleasure of going over a portion of the farm of Mr. D. S. White, in the Fork township, which is certainly conducted with as much method and skill as any that we have seen in the County. Mr. White is one of the progressive young farmers of the County, and in a few years will have his place in the highest possible state of cultivation.

The rope-walker paid us a visit last week, and performed on Thursday and Friday afternoons. His rope was stretched from the top of the store of Messrs. B. F. Cuyton & Sons to the Court House steeple, and was about 35 or 40 feet from the ground. He displayed considerable skill in his performance, and large crowds went to see him on each afternoon, although the sight was not a pleasant one. His collections were small.

The telephone from the hotel to the depot is now in successful operation. Our merchants now communicate with the depot in this way.—Abbeville Press and Banner.—Would not the business men of Anderson likewise find it very advantageous to have telephonic communication with our depot? It would save themselves and their employees many a hot walk during the summer. Its erection would cost but a trifle, and besides we would have the satisfaction of knowing that we were keeping up with the times.

The Abbeville Press and Banner: Rev. Dr. Frierson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Anderson, C. H., and Moderator of the Presbytery at its late session, was the guest of the Misses Cater during his stay among us. He impressed those who met him as a high-toned Christian gentleman of liberal culture, and as possessed of a warm heart and sympathetic disposition which must have won for him the esteem and affection of the flock to whom he ministers. His sermon on Sunday morning was much admired, and has excited favorable comment in the community.

The Texas fever is raging among the boys of Anderson, and unless something is done to counteract its effect, we are in danger of being entirely deserted by them. Not long since two young men took leave of us without previous notice, and are now citizens of the "Lone Star State." On Monday last two others, the juniors of the first, were discovered in their attempts to get away, and were brought to grief by the frustration of their plans, while on Tuesday two others, respectively twelve and thirteen years of age, shook off the dust of their feet against us, and were to be joined at a point agreed upon among themselves by eight or nine others on the following day. They were only preceded as far as Belton, however, when they were turned back by a friend of their parents.

Death of An Estimable Lady.

We are pained to announce the death of Mrs. Sarah Seaborn, which occurred at her residence at Cherry Hill, two miles from Pendleton, at 4 o'clock on Tuesday morning the 22nd inst., after an illness of several months. Mrs. Seaborn was a daughter of Gen. John Baylis Earle and the wife of the late Maj. George Seaborn. She was greatly beloved and admired by all who knew her for the many excellencies of character which she had exhibited throughout a long and useful life in all of its relations. As a lady, educated, refined, accomplished, vivacious and amiable, she was an ornament to society, and attracted many friends, of whose company she was always fond. As a mother, fond, affectionate and thoughtful, and as one of the heads of a large and refined family, she rendered the home circle bright and happy to all its members, and helped to impress those traits of character upon her children, which have given to society useful and honorable men and intelligent and cultivated ladies. Mrs. Seaborn was possessed of a very remarkable energy, which rendered her up to the beginning of her last illness active and cheerful, although over seventy-three years of age. She possessed a highly cultivated mind, and up to the last was a great reader of literature and news, taking a wonderful interest in both. She was a member of St. Paul's Episcopal Church at Pendleton, though not a professed member of the Church until the more recent part of her life. She evinced throughout life a pure and Christian life, and at last passed quietly and happily from earth to the future rewards of the just. Her mind remained clear to the last, and her cheerfulness never forsook her. Although suffering intensely she did not lose the means of overcoming disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels, of which a vitiated torrid atmosphere and brackish mismanaged water are extremely provocative. All emigrants and travelers should be supplied with it.

Y. M. C. A.

The Fourth Annual State Convention of Y. M. C. A. of this State will convene in the Methodist Church at this place this (Thursday) evening at 8 o'clock. Full delegations from the Associations all over the State are expected, and have been arranged for, and the meeting will doubtless be one of unusual interest. In addition to the transaction of business affecting the welfare of the Order in this State, the following programme for the meeting has been arranged and will be gone through with, and the discussion of the several topics contained in it will doubtless be both edifying and instructive to all who may attend. Each session of the Convention will be opened by devotional exercises, Bible readings and song services:

THURSDAY, APRIL 27TH, 8 P. M.
WELCOME MEETING.
Addresses of Welcome.—On the part of the Anderson Association—Mr. L. P. Smith.
On the part of the Town—Mr. G. F. Tully.
On the part of the Press—Maj. E. D. Murray.

To these addresses responses will be made by the President of the Convention, Mr. John Ekins, of Columbia, and others.
FRIDAY, APRIL 28TH.
MORNING SESSION.—Organization of Convention, with Reports from Associations.
AFTERNOON SESSION.—Discussion of the following topics:
What are Associations doing in small towns?
Reports from the Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer of the State Executive Committee.
EVENING SESSION.—Discussion of the topics:
Use of the Bible in Association work.
How can we increase the interest in its study?

SATURDAY, APRIL 29TH.
MORNING SESSION.—Reports of Committees of the Convention.
Discussion of topics:
What are the best Methods of Association work in this State?
AFTERNOON SESSION.—Discussion of the following topics:
Personal Work for Young Men.
Our Duty to the Temperance Work.
The importance of interesting the Youth, and how to do it.
EVENING SESSION.—Song Service and Praise Meeting.

On Sunday the delegates will unite with the Anderson Association in its regular meetings and church services, and it is earnestly desired that all will remain to take part in these closing exercises.

A Merited Compliment.

The Charleston News and Courier, in giving a short account of the semi-annual commencement of the Charleston Female Academy, speaking of the part taken in the exercises of the occasion by a young lady who is greatly admired by many of our readers, says:
The 104th Psalm was then recited in concert, after which Miss Annie Sloan read a chaste and beautiful greeting. Her description of spring, with all its sweet enchantments, tinged with lovely imagery, and was as airy and melodious as the strains of an Eolian harp. She made touching allusion to the harvests of death in the fever-stricken cities of the Southwest last summer, expressing gratitude that our own loved homes were mercifully "passed over" by the destroying angel.

Easter Celebration at St. Paul's Church, Pendleton, S. C.
Mr. Editor: The services at the Episcopal Church on Easter Sunday in Pendleton were conducted by the Pastor, the Rev. W. H. Heckel. The sermon was from the text, "The Lord is risen, indeed," and was as usual a very fine one. The Church was crowded by all denominations, no doubt in a measure attracted thereto by the elaborate decorations, which far surpassed anything seen here for a long time, and the ladies engaged therein deserve great credit. On first entering the Church the eye was attracted to the sentence, "Christ is Risen," suspended by invisible means in the air, and surmounted by a dove in the act of flying, with an olive branch in its mouth. Hanging-baskets, full of moss interspersed with flowers, were suspended up the main aisle. Back of the communion table was a beautiful cross, in white, on ground of arbor-vitae; above the cross a crown, white and gilt; in front of the communion table was a pyramid of geraniums, capped by the baptismal font, in which was a group of calla lilies. The gallery posts were completely clothed in a coat of mail, formed of laurel leaves. In fact, nearly every part of the Church capable of being adorned was taken advantage of, to help form a tout ensemble hardly deemed possible, with the few resources in the way of flowers, &c., procurable here at this season.

Mr. Editor: Please announce that the friends of temperance have determined to resuscitate Hopewell Division No. 95. This old Division has done too much good to allow it to be dormant longer. The planting of its standard in our midst has brought love, peace and prosperity to our friends and neighbors; and that its benign influence may continue we call upon every man and woman who has the moral elevation of his species at heart to meet at the temperance hall Saturday at 4 p. m. prox. for the purpose of reorganization.

MAY MEMBERS.

Mr. L. P. Smith left Anderson by private conveyance for Barnwell on last Wednesday, and will return by rail this evening.

Military Notice.

HEADQUARTERS UPPER BATTALION WESTERN REGIMENT CAVALRY, April 21, 1879.

To the Officers Commanding Companies of the Upper Battalion Western Cavalry: You are directed to meet at Anderson, C. H., on Saturday next, 29th inst., at 11 a. m., for the purpose of casting lots for Sabres, and for transacting other business of importance. By order of Col. W. E. Walters.

J. T. C. Jones,

Commanding Upper Battalion W. R. C.

A Disease that Wrecks the System.

Every function is deranged, every nerve unstrung, every muscle and fibre weakened by fever and ague. It is, in fact, a disease which if unchecked, eventually wrecks the system. In all its types, in every phase, it is dangerous, destructive, stupor, delirium, convulsions, often attend it, and cause swift dissolution. But when combatted with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters its foothold in the system is dislodged, and every vestige of it eradicated. That benign anti-febrile specific and preventive of the dreaded scourge is recognized not only within our own boundaries, but in the lands far beyond them, where intermittents and remittents are fearfully prevalent, to be a sure antidote to the malarial poison and a reliable means of overcoming disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels, of which a vitiated torrid atmosphere and brackish mismanaged water are extremely provocative. All emigrants and travelers should be supplied with it.

A Card.

ANDERSON, April 21, 1879.
EDITOR INTELLIGENCER.—Sir: We beg permission through the columns of your valuable paper to correct the malicious reports about concerning the Lodge of Odd Fellows of Anderson. We have had members who candidly could not longer be members, owing to the following reasons: 1st. An unbridled tongue. 2d. Could not stand by the total abstinence pledge. Now we only wish to give the Odd Fellows their due. She has been misrepresented by the members whose names we have had to erase, on the spot of the most outrageous charges. These persons are working daily against this Order, and showing forth that their pledge is nothing. Mr. Editor, we believe that you are posted too much upon organizations of this kind, and other kinds similar, to disbelieve its real existence. The members names that have been erased are Jessie Herwood and Ben. Collins.

WOMAN'S BEST FRIEND.—Ample testimonials from every section of the country show that Braxford's Female Regulator is as it claims to be, "Woman's best friend." Many suffering females have tried it, and have been cured, and bear witness to its merits in sound constitutions and very chronic. Its record is before the public. Don't fail to try it if you are suffering from any of the complaints peculiar to the sex. For sale by Simpson, Reid & Co., and Willits & Williams.
